I'm not from a finance background.

Can I do this Course?

You surely can and you should if you're interested. Start with the 'finance for non-finance managers' module to begin with.

How would I make time for this comprehensive course?

The idea is to find bite-size time for each course. You can decide to do one course, let's say MS Excel in a week. And find an hour or two in the weekdays and a few hours at the weekend to get the course done.

Why should I do this Financial Analyst Course?

By looking at the gigantic volume of this course, be ensured that there's no reason for not doing this course. Almost everything under financial analysis has been covered with suitable case studies.

Customer Reviews

Hey! I am seasoned finance analyst; however I often check something on your site. I really like the way you describe complicated matters: amazingly clear, focused and wellcovered. Way to go!
